

Thanks for the Memories

Week of Friendship ends

As the sun set, the wild west week Scouting activities at Tamaracouta came to a close. The official closing ceremonies were on Friday evening but the memories of CCJam live on in the hearts of all Scouts, Venturers and Scouters in attendance.

Radish and Gooseberries opened the ceremonies by calling for the return of the spirit frisbees that were presented at the opening of the Jamboree. A special presentation of CCJam badges were given to the Veterans.

Both the Canadian and CCJam flags were lowered; followed by Ross Miller and Mike Scott making a dedication of a CJ'07 banner.

Baden-Powell delivered a special message to all in attendance. CCJam was officially declared closed by Ross Miller.

Radish and Gooseberries thanked Geneviève Maillé and Kevin Ward the Youth Master of Ceremonies.

Performances by Red October and Fighting Crime rocked the closing ceremonies long into the night.

If you don't give respect, then you won't get any in return.

Fort Calgary: Filming the Bucking Bronco

Une semaine d'amitié et esprit

Un gros merci pour tous ces souvenirs. La semaine du Jamboree Canadien Central (L'ouest sauvage) est maintenant terminé; plaisir, soleil et laitue étaient au rendez-vous.

Voici donc un résumé des points principaux de la soirée de clôture. Radish et Gooseberries ont rappelés les "Frisbees" de l'esprit du scoutisme. Cérémonie spéciale de remise de l'écuson du CCJam aux anciens combattants. La descente du drapeau canadien et de celui du CCJam. Ross Miller et Mike Scott ont dédié la bannière du CJ'07. Ross Miller a fait le discours de fermeture du camp. Un gros merci à nos maîtres de cérémonie Geneviève Maillé et Kevin Ward. La soirée c'est terminé par le rythme endiablé des groupes "Red October" et "Fighting Crime".

Cyprus Hills has most Spirit of the Jamboree

At press time Cyprus Hills has achieved the most Spirit of the Jamboree Award. Congratulations to all who were involved.

Thanks a bunch (of lettuce)

The Telegraph Staff, Media Team, and Special Events Crew would like to thank everyone at the Jamboree for their incredible support and indelible spirit.

LOST AND FOUND

Please visit us at the Registration Desk. Come and collect your stuff

Lasso!

Lettuce have a safe trip home

Obituary: Lefty McShoe

Lefty McShoe, faithful companion of Scouter Boo. He took his last step in a Fort Calgary mud hole and not even duct tape could save his sole. So he hangs amongst the trees. His journey's ended; rest in piece(s).

Badgers' Club Contest Results

Lotto-Badge was won by Andrew Baldry from 1st Glen Cairn Scout Troop Craigellachie. Andrew won 140 badges. About $70 will be donated to the World Scout Brotherhood Fund.

Lynx Patrol of 4th Petawawa Scout Troop in Cypress Hills won the 100 badges in the Patrol Contest.

Duct Tape Discovered

After searching for the duct tape all week, Scouter Dale of 1st Lucknow Venturers discovered that the bump under his sleeping bag was not a root, but a roll of duct tape. Mystery solved.

Découverte du "Duct Tape"

Après avoir cherché son "Duct Tape" toute la semaine, Scouter Dave, des aventuriers de 1st Lucknow a découvert que la bosse sous son sac de couchage n'était pas une racine mais son rouleau de "Duct Tape". Mystère résout.

The CCJam media team and special events team

Sports

In a recent game of lettuce ball, Waterloo defeated Guelph 15 heads to 12. As a result, their salaries shall be capped at three heads. Players' Association announces it's not just fun and games in the vegetable garden. More to follow tomatoes.

Memories

6th Ingersoll Group when asked by the press what memories they were taking back they quickly responded, "We are taking back lots, bumps, bruises, scrapes, skinned knees, sore bones, stinking clothes, lots of dirt, badges, and many friendships."

Quartermasters' Contest

Winning verses:

"There was Romaine, Romaine / it was driving me insane / in the store..."
 – Dave Duff, 1st Bobcaygeon
 "Their are gotchies, gotchies / as big as Craigellachie / in the store..."
 –2nd Peterborough
 "There was Braden, Braden / lettuce he was hate'en / in the store..."
 –Braden Jones, 1st Chelsea.

Yum: It's not lettuce

FORT TAMARACOUTA TELEGRAPH - TÉLÉGRAPHE

Publisher

Mike "Gooseberries" Reid

Editor

Liam Morland

Contributors to this issue:

Diane Delisle, Rose mere Memorial
 Clare Ford, Oshawa Area
 Doug Peebles, OOS/Wellington A.
 And countless others who shared their stories.

Printed by / Imprimé par

Bureau en Gros, Saint-Jérôme, Québec